
WEBINAR

Motivational Leadership through the Crisis

Webinar “Motivational Leadership through the Crisis”

In this new reality that we're all experiencing, what is the position of the business leadership and how can it help and mobilize its organization's human resources?

This unprecedented pandemic situation has affected, and continues to daily affect, the coordination of the organizational structure and makes it difficult for the leadership to find the right functions which will bring a new balance to it, and help the sustainable development of the organization.

Webinar Goals

Participants will learn how:

- ✓ Leaders can motivate their employees
- ✓ To maintain the morale of their subordinates high
- ✓ To create a strong team, with high performance standards, even when everyone works remotely

Webinar Contents

- Motivational leadership in the times of Crisis
- Internal and external motivation
- Enhancing Team Performance

Webinar lasts 60' and will be performed through the zoom platform.