Leading Virtual Teams

Webinar “Leading Virtual Teams”

Why do we need to work in the same building? Many companies struggled with this question even before the coronavirus pandemic made remote working a necessity, rather than a choice.

The rapid pace of globalization and the growing number of collaborative software solutions have enabled virtual work, while the demand for skills from around the world have made it a necessity, but virtual teamwork is not intuitive. It’s about time leaders recognized the human side of that equation.

Webinar Goals

Participants will:

- ✓ Create practical management strategies to build teams
- ✓ Get to understand how trust can improve collaboration
- ✓ Learn techniques to increase participation and ensure high performance between virtual groups

Webinar Contents

- Effective Cooperation Practices
- Upgrading Communication Skills
- Sensitive issues and their management during remote discussions
- Creating a better interface in a naturally remote environment

Webinar lasts 4 x 60' and will be performed through the zoom platform.
